

REPERTOIRE

2012 Sleeping Beauty

- Perrault's classic fairy tale set to Tchaikovsky's famous score with a gothic twist
- Won Manchester Theatre Award, Olivier Awards and National Dance Awards nominations, and 4 star reviews in numerous publications
- Most successful UK tour to date, selling out in theatres across the country
- Toured to Ravenna, Moscow, USA
- 24 dancers

2012 Early Adventures

- Triple bill of Spitfire, Town and Country and The Infernal Galop originally created for Adventures in Motion Pictures and recreated for Matthew Bourne's 25th Anniversary Celebrations
- Toured to smaller theatres across the UK
- 9 dancers

2011 Lord of the Flies

- Celebrated the centenary of William Golding's birth and based on his novel
- Collaboration with Creative Scotland and Glasgow Theatres
- Brought together New Adventures creative team and most experienced dancers with boys from schools across West Dunbartonshire with no professional dance training
- Previewed in main BBC1 news, received 4 star reviews from the Scotsman, The Glasgow Herald and Sunday Express
- Touring to 13 cities across the UK in 2014

2010 Cinderella

- The ballet classic with Prokofiev's score transposed to London's Blitz
- Won UK Theatre Award for Outstanding Achievement in dance in 2011, 4 star reviews from The Times, Daily Telegraph, Time Out and The Guardian, Olivier Awards and Manchester Evening News Awards nominations
- 25 dancers

2008 Dorian Gray

- Performed to over 13,000 people at the Edinburgh International Festival, becoming the most successful dance production in the history of the Festival
- Won Manchester Evening News Award, Edinburgh Festival Herald Angel Award for Excellence at the 2008 Festival. Nominated for Outstanding Company at the National Dance Awards
- Toured the UK, Ravenna and Parma in Italy and Moscow
- Revived with UK/Japanese cast for tour of Japan 2013
- 14 dancers

2007 The Car Man

- A dance-thriller based on James Cain's film 'The Postman Always Rings Twice' with Bizet's score for Carmen and with the Spanish cigarette factory becoming an American garage-diner
- Original AMP production 2000 was filmed for Channel 4 in 2001
- Won Evening Standard Award, Los Angeles Drama Critics Award, Theatre Manager's Special Award for dance, touring and audience development, and Olivier Award nomination
- Performed in London's Old Vic theatre and toured the UK, Europe, America and Japan
- 25 dancers

2005 Edward Scissorhands

- Based on Tim Burton's classic movie whose star, Johnny Depp said "Bravo. I teetered on the verge of tears throughout."
- Won Drama Desk Award and Manchester Evening News Award,
- Performed 11 weeks at Sadler's Wells and toured the UK, giving over 400 performances by the original company
- Performed in Sydney Opera House in 2009, New Adventures was the first British dance company to perform in the venue and sold out for 3 weeks
- International tours to Korea, Japan, America, Australia and Europe
- 31 dancers

2005 Highland Fling

- Bourne's take on the Bourneville classic 'La Sylphide'
- Located in contemporary Scotland and dubbed 'Trainspotting – the ballet' with reference to the Danny Boyle film, Trainspotting
- Original production for AMP 1994, recreated and toured UK 2005
- Re-created for Scottish Ballet in 2013, the only time New Adventures has allowed one of its productions to be performed by another company

2004 Swan Lake

- Original premiere in 1995, performed in London's West End and toured across UK, USA, Europe, Japan
- Revived for Sadler's Wells 2004 and returned for extended seasons in 2006/7, 2009/10, 2013/14
- Won Astaire Award for best dance on Broadway, Tony Awards for Best Director of a Musical, Choreography and Costume Design, 5 Drama Desk Awards, Los Angeles Drama Critics Award, The South Bank Show Award, Evening Standard Ballet Award, Olivier Award and many more
- Film version of Billy Elliott concludes with Billy about to take the lead in Matthew Bourne's Swan Lake
- Filmed in 3D for Sky Arts 2011
- 38 dancers

2002 Nutcracker!

- New production premiered at Sadler's Wells 2002/3, extended seasons in 2003/4, 2004/5, 2007/8, 2011/12
- Original Adventures in Motion Pictures (AMP) production 1992
- Nominated for Olivier Award for Best Dance Production
- Broadcast on BBC1 Christmas 2003 becoming 1st full-length dance performance shown on BBC1 for 20 years
- International tours to Japan, Korea, Italy, USA
- 30 dancers

2002 Play Without Words

- Premiered as part of the National Theatre's Transformation Season
- Won Olivier Award for Best Entertainment and Best Choreography
- International tour including New York, Los Angeles, Moscow in 2005
- Revived for UK tour in 2012
- 16 dancers

Nutcracker!

Town and Country

Dorian Gray

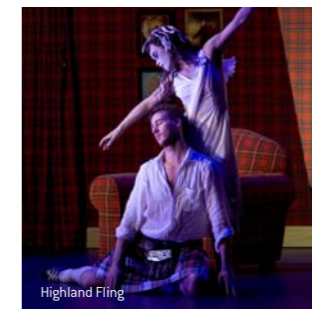

Nutcracker!

Edward Scissorhands

Play Without Words

Highland Fling

The Car Man